

ACONA MEETING
MARCH 27th, 2012 Notes
Submitted by Nina E.K. Ehlig

7PM Elliot Gold opened meeting, greeted all & covered agenda & guest speakers

Cole Landowski, with L.A. County Hygiene Program 626-430-5440

- Covered and shared allowable decibel levels.
- Department has special meters to gauge noise levels.
- Night time standards time frame 10PM to 7AM.
- This department has the Sheriffs Dept. calling them to handle certain noise issues.
- This department regularly monitors body shops and trash companies.

Steve Reagan, Block Captain at New York Drive & Allen

- Covered info re: Zone based CERT program
- California Disaster Corp & Neighborhood Watch.
- Eleven zones in Altadena
- Spoke about geology of California in relation to earthquakes.
- Need more CERT trained individuals.

Ericka Lozano-Buhl, Ed Meyers & Lori Webster, panel members discussing Ralphs Grocery Store issue

- Petition with 200 signatures obtained to see thorough upgrade of store with improvements and expansion.
- This is all about commerce in Altadena.
- Spoke about upcoming "Vision" meetings in April: come prepared.
- It has been shared with the Town Council that Altadena residents want restaurants; however codes pose issues with having certain amounts of parking spaces.
- Suggestions that transportation to sites be available.

Open Q & A Session

- Carlotta inquired about what type of business is going in at Lincoln and Figueroa, where thrift shop used to be.
- Mr. Webster stated that all the seats at this meeting should always be filled with standing room only, leading to the importance of the ACONA meetings.

Meeting Adjourned at 8:30PM